COOKIE POLICY
(version1.0)

Who we are

Selah Risk Advisory is a Pan-African risk advisory firm with extensive market and sector knowledge. Our technical experience and a forward-thinking approach to risk management allow us to provide unrivalled solutions to our clients across Africa.

Purpose

This document serves as our Cookie Policy and complements our Privacy Statement, which is available online. The purpose of this policy is to inform you about what cookies are, how they are used, and to provide guidance on managing them while browsing our website. Our complete policies can be found online at www.selah-risk.com.

What are cookies

When you visit our website, small text files known as 'cookies' may be stored on your device. While these cookies do not retain personal information, they may collect personal identifiers such as your name or email address, enabling us to associate personal information with your device. This facilitates recognition of your device each time you visit our website.

Why are cookies used

Cookies on our site serve the following purposes:

- Customising and enhancing your website experience by remembering your preferences.
- Providing content tailored to your preferences.
- Ensuring that any advertisements are tailored to your preferences (if applicable).

Types of cookies used

Our website employs various cookies. Some are installed by us, while others come from third parties. You have the option to delete these cookies at your discretion, either immediately upon leaving our website or at a later time. These cookies will persist on your device until you choose to remove them.

The following types of cookies are utilized on our website:

- Essential cookies: Necessary for the proper functioning of the website.
- Functional cookies: Assist our website in remembering information about you, such as your preferences.

How to delete cookies

Your browser may be configured to automatically accept cookies, but you can manually delete them. Below are steps to delete cookies in Google Chrome:

- Open Google Chrome.
- Click on the three dots in the top-right corner to access a drop-down menu.
- Select "Settings" from the menu.
- In the new tab labelled "Settings," click on "Clear browsing data."
- Choose "Cookies and other site data."
- Select the desired time range for deletion.
- Click on "Clear data."

For instructions on deleting cookies in other browsers, please refer to this guide.

Please note that refusing cookies may limit your access to our website or specific content displayed on it.

Updates and changes

This policy may be updated, and changes will be implemented as necessary. In the event of significant changes, we will ensure that you are notified upon returning to our website.
